

Emails, letters and personal encounters with people who share the impact BibleTalk.tv has had on their lives continually reveals God's goodness and faithfulness. We appreciate every congregation and individual who supports this ministry and our mission to share the Good News of Jesus Christ, helping others to grow in their faith and share their faith.

DOCUMENTARY

BibleTalk.tv was recently contacted by Chris White, an author, filmmaker and director of an internet radio station (The Revelations Radio Network). Mr. White's current project is a feature-length documentary film on the subject of "once saved always saved." Chris and Mike were able to meet and record their interview for several hours in the BT studios. We look forward to viewing the completed project, which will be released in the near future.

I belong to Hindu religion, but I am always curious to learn about other religions. While I was searching on google, I got your website and found some interesting things. I desire to learn about Christian religion too.

WORKSHOPS & LECTURESHIPS

Fall is upon us and with it comes opportunities for BibleTalk.tv to attend a variety of workshops, lectureships and Mission Sundays. This past quarter I attended the EQUIP Workshop (TX) and Harding Lectureships (AR). I was blessed to learn about all the ways that BT is being used: from missionaries in Brazil translating our content into Portuguese, to a missionary using BT among the Navajo nation while ministering on the reservation, as well as multiple small churches using BT to help fill the need for a minister or adult class teacher.

AUDIOBOOKS

Charles Andrews, a member of the Choctaw Church of Christ, has been hired to create the final eight BibleTalk audiobooks.

Mike Mazzalongo has made a short update video on the BibleTalk.tv ministry. You can view it here: bibletalk.tv/fall2023
