

Introduction

I. A Changing World

1. America is the only _____.

- Today we are not sure who our enemy is.
-

2. A _____ society is a reality.

- 1 out of 4 Americans came from other nations and the numbers are growing.
 - How we deal with this reality will determine what type of society we will have in the future.
-

3. A Shift to the _____ age.

- As we go from outer space to cyber space _____
-

4. America is _____.

- We are so prosperous our politicians are fighting over _____.
-

II. A Changeless Faith

- Our changeless faith is what will help us survive our changing world. _____
-

1. The Problem of _____.

- Psalms 127:1 _____

- As Christians, we understand that the government is a servant of God (Romans 13:1)

2. Multiculturalism _____

- We need to promote the idea that, "...the nation whose God is the Lord is blessed."

3. The _____ Age

- Balance and perspective are maintained if you know what is _____

- Psalms 199:160 _____

- II Timothy 3:16 _____

- The danger in the information age is that it threatens to make cynics or doubters out of everyone. _____

4. Prosperity

- With great prosperity comes the temptation to forget: _____

- In this decade of prosperity, we need. _____

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

Summary / Invitation

- Let's be optimistic about the future. _____

- Let's be realistic. _____

We must always remember:

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

- Let us hold on to God's promises.
