

Introduction -Paul’s speech at Mars Hill.

- The “resurrection” was a convenient place to stop Paul and challenge his teaching.

I. Changing the World Without God.

1. Friedrich Nietzsche

2. Karl Marx

3. Sigmund Freud

• THEIR SUCCESS

- Nietzsche _____
- Marx _____
- Freud _____

• THEIR RESULTS

- Nietzsche _____
- Marx _____
- Freud _____

• The world is not getting _____ it’s getting _____.

II. How To Change The World

1. Declare that _____ is the Lord of Creation, not _____.
Ps. 33:6-9 _____

Ps. 33:10-12 _____

2. Declare that _____ is the root of mankind's _____.

- Rom. 6:23 _____

3. Declare that the _____ begins and ends with _____.

III. The Process of Change.

- What would Paul have said had they allowed him to continue preaching that day?
- Paul would have explained _____ God changes people.

I Cor. 6:9-10 _____

I Cor. 6:11 _____

- How God changes people:

1. He washes _____.

- Acts 2:38 _____

- I Peter 3:21 _____

2. He sets _____.

3. He _____.

- Washing _____

- Sanctification _____

- Justification _____

Summary/Invitation

- You can begin to make the unknown God known and change the world.

A. It begins with _____

B. It continues with _____

C. It finishes when _____

*It starts with _____!